No Old Business

New Business:

2024 Go Green Environmental Fair

Sexton reported the 2023 Go Green Environmental Fair was a success. Sexton requested the city to be a sponsor in the 2024 Fair and to assign a city volunteer to serve on the board. Sexton moved to be a sponsor, with no financial commitment, and Weedman seconded. All aye. Motion passed. The clerk will notify the committee.

Halloween Barricade Encumbrance

Councilwoman Sexton reached out to John Sullivan, the Public Works Director, for a cost estimate for barricades to be used to block street entrances on Halloween. Sullivan estimated $264.28 for barricade drop off and placement on October 31, 2023, and pick up on November 1, 2023. Sexton moved and Weedman seconded to encumber $264.28 to place and pick up barricades as stated above. All aye. Motion approved.

Street Cleaning Encumbrance

City Clerk O'Bryan reached out to All Care Services, LLC to sweep the streets on December 12, 2023, which will be just after the city-wide leaf pick up scheduled for Sunday, December 10, 2023. All Care quoted $800.00, the same cost as last year.

Schmitz moved and Gogol seconded to encumber $800.00 to sweep the streets on December 12, 2023. All aye. Motion carried.
