State of Kansas, County of Johnson; ss:

LOYD NEFF

(First Published in Johnson County Herald Thursday, August 6, 1959)
ORDINANCE NO. 49
An Ordinance prohibiting the placing of notices, signs and advertisement on public property.
Be it ordained by the governing body of the City of Westwood Hills, Kansas:
Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, except a public officer, employee or contractor in the performance of a public duty, to place, post, stick, print, paint or otherwise display any notice, placard, bill, card, poster, advertisement, sign or other paper or device calculated to attract the attention of the public, or cause the same to be done by any person, in or on any public sidewalk, street or property dedicated to the public or to public use, or upon a lamp post, pole or tree located on such sidewalk street or property. Any matter or material placed on public property contrary to the provisions of this article may be removed therefrom by or at the direction of any officer or employee of the City.
Section 2. Any person violating this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction hereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $1.00 nor more than $25.00.
Section 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in effect after its publication.
Passed by the City Council this 3rd day of August, 1959.
Approved this 3rd day of August, 1959.
